

Dining Etiquette 101: Put Your Best Fork Forward

Wednesday, June 23, 2010 at 6:30 p.m.
The Caucus Room at 401 9th Street, NW

$125 per person, inclusive of tax and gratuity *
Price also includes class fees, three-course dinner and pre-selected wines
~ Call (202) 393-1300 for reservations ~

Alexandra & Company will lead you through a crash course in essential etiquette for today's professionals. Enjoy a signature dining experience at The Caucus Room, as Alexandra teaches you how to take your dining etiquette to the next level. Learn etiquette expectations and guidelines for success at the table.

Topics covered include: making memorable first impressions at cocktail hours; sitting at the table; different styles of eating; napkin etiquette; toasting guidelines and being a good host and an even better guest.

Class is conducted throughout the three-course dinner with an open forum for questions throughout the evening. Whether you need a manners refresher or a complete overhaul, this class will help you leverage yourself, and your reputation, as someone with polish and poise in any dining occasion.

IF YOUR COMPANY IS INTERESTED IN HOSTING A PRIVATE ETIQUETTE DINNER WITH ALEXANDRA AT THE CAUCUS ROOM:

Please contact Cristina Cravedi via phone at (202) 393-1300 or via e-mail at specialevents@thecaucusroom.com to discuss available dates, meeting rooms, menu options and pricing.

A credit card is required for reservations. All bookings will be charged 48 hours in advance of the event, and no cancellations will be allowed after this date.*